The Stuart and Hadow Short Story Competition 2022 Terms and Conditions of Entry

The Stuart and Hadow short story competition began in 1977 as a means to honour the work of Donald Stuart and Lyndall Hadow who were brother and sister writers. Each made a significant contribution to West Australia's literary landscape in their own right, publishing novels, short stories, reviews and articles. Lyndall Hadow is also remembered as a prominent radio journalist.

Theme: Open

Prizes: First $1000; Second $300;
Third $100.

Opening Date: 15 March 2022

Closing Date: 1 June 2022

Winners Announced: August 2022

Maximum length: 3,000 words

Maximum of 3 stories

Entry Fee: $25 per story. Members $15

1. All work must be previously unpublished. Work broadcast or published online in any way shall be considered, for the purpose of the Stuart and Hadow Short Story Competition, to have been previously published, and may not be submitted. Any story that has been awarded or commended in any previous competition may not be submitted.
2. Competitors retain copyright in their entries, however agree that the Fellowship of Australian Writers WA (FAWWA) is granted the non-exclusive and non-commercial right to publish the winning, second and third place entries on its website for the term of one year (commencing from the announcement of the winner) for the purpose of promoting the Stuart and Hadow Short Story Competition.
3. FAWWA will always credit the author of the work when reproducing the work and will not make any changes to the work without first seeking the prior written consent of the author.
4. Manuscripts submitted to the competition will be shredded after the competition. Ensure you keep a copy.
5. The competition is judged blind. Each story must have a separate cover sheet, which provides only the following information: Competition, Title of Story. Your name MUST NOT appear anywhere except on the entry form. See below.
6. A completed entry form must be enclosed. Ensure all sections are filled out and the entry form is signed.
7. The judge's decision is final. Competitors must not communicate with the judge before or during the competition.
